

Do not change the Do not call list of New Jersey to allow more call to reach the consumers.

Instead create a Call me list where consumer that feel they are missing out on being called can opt in.

Opting out is already selling out